SHAFTS OF SARCASM AIMED AT THE GER MAN.

THE PACHA CALLED A SENTIMENTAL VACIL LATOR, AN INSINCERE HUNTER OF BUGS

AND BEETLES, A GOOD BOTANIST: BUT NOT A LEADER OF MEN.

Henry M. Stanley lectured in the Academy of since of Brooklyn last night to a large audience on "The Rescue of Emin." The lecture was purchased by the Ledics' Ald Association of the Brooklyn Homocopathic Hospital, and the proceeds were devoted to swelling the funds of that institution. Its managers have every reason to be satisfied with the financial results of the cutertainment, while socially it was a results of the cutertainment, while socially it was a results after and the lecture itself was impressive and successful. Some New-York people present who had beard Mr. Stanley describe tropical forests and pogmies and the Mountains of the Moon in the Metropolitan Opera House, thought that Mr. Stanley should have given the metropolits the treat which he reserved for the sister city. But it is said that Mrs. Stanley thinks that the first lecture is the better of the two, and k is not unreasonable to suspect that her judgment may have influenced her husband's selection.

However that may be, the lecture on "The Rescue SAVAGE OR CIVILISED.

towever that may be, the fecture of "Ing Roscht cain" was received with more signs of appreciation followed by more commendatory comment than other. It is a graphic and interesting story, and its more of the popular idea of what is to be except from a man of action. Among those who heard

J. S. T. Stranahan, the Rev. Dr. Cuyler, the Rev. Dr. De WRt Talmage, Leonard Moody, Mr. and Mrs. Camden C. Dike, Heary Coffin, Timothy L. Woodruf, Moward Cowperthwait, Frank H. Cowperthwait, George A. Beil, W. T. Hatch, ex. Alderman Bewers, Simeon B. Chitteeden, Mr. and Mrs. St. Clair McKelway, Congressman Pelix Campbell, Henry T. Richardson, Walter L. Wellington, Nelson J. Gates, Captain Elihu Spicer, Jr., Henry D. Pelisemus, Thomas White, S. T. Dauchy, H. B. Morgan, William C. Beccher, General Alfred C. Barnes, J. C. Hoagiand, John T. Culyer, the Rev. A. J. F. Behrends, A. J. Nutting, Spencer Beldwin, William H. Wallace, David M. Stone, S. V. White, William Hester, Dr. Henry M. Lewis, the Rev. Charles H. Hall, the Rev. Wesley Davis and Mrs. Davis, Gordon L. Ford, William B. Leonard, Mrs. Louise Van Nostrand, Mrs. Sidney V. Levell, Mr. and Mrs. John S. James, Mr. and Mrs. Caril H. De Silver, Dr. William Jarvis, ex-Mayor John W. Levell, Mr. and Mrs. John S. James, Mr. and Mrs. Carll H. De Silver, Dr. William Jarvis, ex-Mayor John W. Runter, Dr. E. J. Whitney, Dr. J. G. Johnson, Lieutenant H. C. Du Val, ex-Judge Samuel D. Morris, William Irwin Martin, Joseph Fehys, Henry N. Whitney, Henry Sheldon, Albert Ammaman, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Ludd, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Dodge, Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Woodward and Mrs. Sturges Comn. MRS. STANLEY PRESENT.

Mrs. Stanley sat in a box near the stage with her , Mrs. Tennant, and a party of friends, among were Major and Mrs. J. B. Pond and E. J.

eccived with great cordiality. The explorer read his ecture with vivacity and animation, and indeed showed a vigor of voice and gesture, which was surrising to the two or three people in the andience who of new that he had been confined to his bed nearly all as by an attack of the African fever, to which he is

Readers of his book "In Darkest Africa," and those o have followed the course of the Emin Pacha Reenterprise and the controversies arising out of it, familiar with most of the incidents which the icader of the expedition last evening related. But he garnished them with many details and telling bits of sarcastic description of the manners and character of Emin. Mr. Stanley possesses a certain gift of humor for which "siy" is too harsh a word. The Scotch would call him "a pawky chiel."

HIS EMPRESSION OF EMIN. said that when he undertook the conduct of had an idea from all he heard and from a study of the German Pacha's letters and reports that he was a second Gordon. "His sentiments," said Mr. Stanley, ppeared to be noble; his determination and his

The lecturer told how he organized the expedition, and gave the names of his officers. Incidentally he d that Jameson and Jephson each paid 5,000 pounds the privilege of sharing in the campaign. Then went on to tell of the beginning of the march, and the plunge into the gloomy recesses of the forest.

He described vividly the demoralization of his followers by the gloom of that pathless wilderness of trees.

"My men," he said, "heard from the natives that the forest was without end. Though Moslems, they and darker till it reached where a great serpent lay was also decided to leave to Mrs. Jameson's discretion around the earth. Said they. 'The ancients must whether or not she would publish the letter from her husband in relation to the charges against him. have referred to this dismal region, these vast, voice-less solitudes.' Their impressions striking their vivid fancies, some go back to Yambuya, and upset the young officers (of the rear column) by their tales of young oncers (of the property of the cannibel feast, and these who remain, compelled to it by fears of greater dangers, mechanically march on, march ever."

When it emerged into open grass-land the column and been reduced from 389 to 173 souls.

Mr. Stanley thus described how he got his first news of Emin: "On April 2, 1856, we set out the second time to Lake Albert, but on this occasion carried a atecl boat. On the 20th of the month we received a letter from Emin Pacha, dated the 25th of March. He said that, hearing of the rumors of our having been on the lake in December, he had just returned to the north end from an unsuccessful quest, and asked us to stay near the southwest end until he could come to us. We could not help smiling at the idea of staying six or ten weeks in Central Africa until news could

Here, then, Mr. Stanley indicated, was laid the foundation of his first doubts as to whether Emin Pacha was a Gordon Pacha, a man of mental Pacha was a Gordon Pacha, a man of mental and moral force, after all. Jephson was sent to meet Emin, and brought him to the camp of the expedition. Here there was a jolly celebration of the meeting, but in the immediate wake of it followed Mr. Stanley's business presentations and propositions to the Pacha. He hemmed and hawed at the question whether he would return, and said his decision would depend on his people. Later, Mr. Stanley offered him £1,500 a year and £12,000 substanley offered him £1,500 a year and £12,000 sub-sidy to become Governor of the province for the King of the Belgians. He replied that he was unwilling to change his flag. Next, Mr. Stanley offered to get some British association to employ him to civilize the place in British interests. He seemed pleased at this, and the matter was left in abeyance until Mr. Stanley should return from his search for the unlucky rear

The sequel all the world knows. Mr. Stanley found the column wrecked, its leader, Major Barttelot, dead, his fellow-officer, Jameson, gone away, and Bonny left to tell the deleful tale. To pile agony on agony for Mr. Stanley, he was next startled by news of the capture of Emin and Jephson by the rebels, and the prespect of their annihilation, along with their captors, by the fanatic Mahdists.

Of the rear column Mr. Stanley said: "The tales youred into my ears by Mr. Bonny and his heart-broken followers will not bear repetition. They were so hor-rible in their character that we could hardly bear to hear them. Such a dismal chapter of disaster, suffering, despair and anguish has never been written during a contury of African travel as this would supply if a contury of African travel as this would supply in rightly related."

After Mr. Sianley's return to the camp at Bodo, when he found what had befallen Emin and Jephson, he moved forward. Jephson was enabled to rejoin him and to tell him of his eight months' experience of the Pacha's vacillations. Mr. Stanley wrote an appealing letter to the Pacha—"the most laborious," polite, Chosterfieldian epistic I ever wrote in my life," said he.

THE RELEASE OF EMIN.

THE RELEASE OF EMIN.

The next step was the release of Emin by his rebels, who were led by that sentimental entomological ruler to Stanley to be forgiven. Mr. Stanley said the rascals really came to spy out the prospects of disarming his party and making prisoners of them for the Mahdl, or of making use of the Relief Expedition to lead them to some country not too remote from the Albert where they could be safe from the Mahdists.

Mr. Stanley destroyed their illusions as to any such prospects with great celerity. These same rebels made an engagement to join Stanley and Emin shortly afterward; but though they received seventy-eight days' grace they did not keep their word, and they have not been heard of since. It is supposed that the Mahdists have taken possession of the country and destroyed them all.

with a vivid, but rapid description of the inciden with a vivid, but rapid asserption of the incurrency, Mr. stanley took his audience in fancy to Bagamoyo, and re'old the half-serious, half-indicrous tale of Emin's immbic and the consequences. After having managed aims by careful selection, economy, and prudence to reduce the notual cost of insurance to the lowest practicable point, and has never been surpassed in this respect. Ratio of expenses of management to receipt since organization, 8.49 per cent. The percentage of dividends to premiums received in 1889 was 26,39 per cent. Assets; $57,874,971.71; surplus (by New-York State report), $5,410,890.92?

THE CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

PHILIP S. MILLER, General Agent, for New-York City, Long Island, and New-Jersey,

1 Wall St., New-York City.

by petty and childish means to cut himself loose tro Mr. Stanley and the Relief Expedition, and after having rudely cut the ties that had bound him for many years to Casati and his old officers and faithful followers, Emin, on the 5th of February, this year entered the German service, and is now at the head of a German expedition near Lake Victoris.

"Poor, poor Emin," said Mr. Stanley, with a deliciously, delicately ironical inflection of the voice, "What a fall was yours!"

"Thus," he continued. "I have told you as much as I dare of the manner in which we travelled to the relief of this singular man; how our expedition, through the want of a little frankness on his part, lost hundreds of lives and suffered many mouths of fatigue and toil, lives and suffered many mouths of fatigue and toil, and, finally, how this want of frankness and sincerity caused his own deposition and imprisonment. We have slowly discovered that he was in no way fitted for the role of a governor over such turbulent aptrits as the Soudanese and Egyptians. To make friends a man must be friendly, is an old saying. Man is moved easily by what relates to man, more expecially savage man. Had Emin shown less attention to bugs and beciles, more sympathy would have existed between him and the people placed under his charge by Gordon. As a man this dreaming, half-blind savant has many estimable qualities. He seems devoted to natural history and botany, and his looks, like his letters, overflowed with kindly sentiments. He is extremely courteous. He was a most agreeable conversationalist, and at certain assilictic tea-parties in Brooklyn and New-York he would have been considered a treasure. (Laughter.) He was courteous and ceremonious always. Out of sympathy with him in his misfortunes, we might have told the pitiful tale of his vacillation with even more delicacy with him is his vacillation with even more delicacy than we have used, had there not been so many witnesses and had we not suspected that he was altogether too deep for us."

CLOSING HIS LECTURE. CLOSING HIS LECTURE

"But I will say no more. He cannot be described truly any more than we can, until we and he have fintruly any more than we can, until we and he have finished our careers, and you must allow us to remember, if you please, that every whisper or instnuation derogatory of him cheapens somewhat the man for whom we ventured our lives and for whom we all endured such bodily suffering in that universe of sunless woods.

"We console ourselves, however, that through this mission we have been supplied with a store of remarkable reminiscences, that we have explored the heart of a great primeval forest, that we have had unique experiences with its pygmies and cannibals, that we have discovered the long-lost snowy Mountains of the Moon, the sources of the Albertine, Nile, and also Lake Albert Edward, besides an important extension of the Victoria Nyanza; and that finally four European Governments, the Eritish, French, German and Portuguese, have been induced to agree as to what their several spheres of influence shall be in the future in the Dark Continent, with a view, let us hope, to exercise their beneficent powers for its redemption, out of the state of darkness and woe in which it has so long remained."

THE STORY OF THE REAR-GUARD.

STANLEY PLACES THE DOCUMENTS AT THE DIS-POSAL OF "THE LONDON TIMES."

London, Nov. 13.-Stanley has placed at the dis "The Times" all the documents connected with the rear-guard, including Bonny's original report and the officers' log-book. "The Times" will begin the publication of the papers to morrow.

Mrs. Jameson writes to "The Times" that her hus band did witness an act of cannibalism, but that he made no sketches at the time, and that he did not buy the victim. Of this, she says, there is authoritative attested evidence. As the incident happened fifty miles from Yambuya, she adds, it has no bearing whatever on the management of the rear-guard.

Stanley's secretary, Wilson, writes confirming the statement that he witnessed Assad Ferran's affidavit relating to the Jameson affair.

THE EMIN RELIEF COMMITTEE. London, Nov. 12.—A meeting of the Emin Reliei Committee was held to-day. It was decided to take no immediate action relative to the charges and counter-charges made by members of the expedition. It was also decided to leave to Mrs. Jameson's discretion

HE MEANT TO END TWO LIVES.

A MAN SHOOTS A WOMAN AND THEN BLOWS OUT HIS OWN BRAINS.

A case of attempted murder and suicide occurred in Orange, N. J., last evening. Mrs. Max Knoble, a widow, who keeps a liquor-shop in Canfield-st., was shot by Robert Kerr, who afterward committed suicide. Kerr was a married man, with a wife and two chil-dren in Newark. He was about thirty-five years old. for some time he had been trying to induce Mrs.
Knoble to marry him, on the plea that he was a single man. Last evening, about 9:45, the two were alone together in the liquorshop when the neighborhood was startled to hear the general of a pictal followed after a brief interval the report of a pistol, followed after a brief interval by another. The people ran to the place and found Mrs. Knoble lying on the floor. Her face was black-

SEEKING DIVORCE FROM HIS YOUNG WIFE

ONLY EIGHTEEN AND RICH-EX-JUDGE LEICES TER HOLME THE CO-RESPONDENT.

An action for an absolute divorce was begun yester day in the Superior Court, where the summons and com-plaint were filed, by Dr. Fraser C. Fuller, of this city, against his wife, Lizzie Hastings Fuller, who is at present at the Palace Hotel, San Francisco, where she has been since August. Dr. Fuller married Miss Hastings, who was well known in local social circles, last February who was well known in local rules, and took his wife to his home at the Dakota apartment-house, near Central Park, where a brilliant reception in her honor was held early last spring. Ex-Judge Lelcester Holme, of this city, is the coespondent.

Mrs. Fuller is only eighteen years old and is re puted to be wealthy. Her testamentary guardian is said to be William H. Phillips, of No. 40 Wall-st. Dr. said to be William H. Phillips, of No. 40 Wall-st. Dr. Fuller was seen by a reporter at a late hour last night, but he refused to make any statement regarding the case. His attorney, J. H. Caldwell, of No. 71 Broadway, refused to give any information beyond what was contained in the pleadings. He said that Judge Freedman had made an order yesterday directing the service of the aummons upon Mrs. Fuller by publication, and also that a copy of the pleadings and order should be mailed to her in San Francisco.

THE BRIDEGROOM DID NOT APPEAR.

Miss Mary Marlow and John Slocum, both belonging to families of high standing in Jamaica, L. I., were to have been married on Monday evening last. At the appointed hour the gueste were gathered and the bride and her family, friends and the ciergyman were waiting. But the bridergroom was not present. Fearing some accident, the bride's father dispatched measungers to Slocum's home and wherever else it was likely he might have been detained, but he was nowhere to be found. At 10 p. m. the search was given up and Miss Marlow retired to her chamber in tears. The guests, however, thought it a pity the supper should go to waste, and so attended to it.

FACTORY SITE

wanted, suitable for a large establishment for building steam engines. Most wanted, suitable for a large establishment for building steam engines. Must have good railroad facilities and be within an hour of New York City. No objection to purchasing a large plat of land, if healthfully and pleasantly located and desirable for residence as well as nanufacturing purposes.

A deep navigation water front desir-

State all particulars as to location, railroad facilities, assessed valuation and surroundings, with best spot cash price.

Send diagram.
Address "STEAM," Post Office Draw-er 171, Buffalo, N. Y.

ANOTHER WARM WELCOME

THE IRISH ENVOYS AT JERSEY CITY.

GREAT CROWD CREEKS THEM TO THE ECHO AND SUBSORIBES LIBERALLY TO THE CAUSE OF HOME RULE.

Jersey City fell into line last evening in behalf of Home Rule for Ireland, and gave a greeting to the Home Rule for Ireland, and gave a greeting to the Irish envoys as enthusiastic and as significant in its way, proportionalely to the Irish population of the place, as any which they are likely to receive wherever they go during their visit to this country. It was apparent, judged from the crowd of sympathizers who welcomed the Irish Members of Parliament and the generous offerings of money which were made after Mr. O'Brien had made his speech, that the phenomenal success which they had on Monday evening in the Metropolitan Opera House was having its effect. The meeting was held in the Oakland-ave. Rink, the largest building in the city, which is capable of holding 4,000 persons. It has been the scene of some notable American political gatherings. Yet the meeting last evening could compare favorably in number applause as well. The large place was filled long the delegates arrived, and enterprising pedlers reaped a rich harvest by selling portraits of Dillon and (PBrien, the two most popular members of the dele-gation. The decorations were varied and elaborate, Chinese lanterns, bunting and Irish and American flag being conspicuous in all parts of the big building.

ners were striking: "Home Rule for Ire-land," "Parnell Our Leader," "We Want Legislative Independence," "God Save Ireland," and so on. Portraits of Gladstone and Parnell were displayed in prominent places behind the speakers, and one large frish flag, with the harp in the background, represented freland and America shaking hands, while the Stars and Stripes and Erin's flag were intertwined, the whole burdered with absurged a About 200 of the most d Stripes and Erin's flag were intertwined, the whole dered with shamrocks. About 300 of the most ominent citizens of Jersey City were on the stage, ong whom were most of the leading city officials, headed by Mayor Cleveland and Governor Abbett. The priests, too, here as elsewhere, lent their ald to the cause by their presence as well as by their subscriptions. They came not alone from Jersey City, but from the neighboring towns of Newark, Elizabeth, Bayonne, Morristown, Trenton and others which have large Irish populations. Conspicuous among them was Monsignor Seton, of Jersey City, and the Rev. Dr. Dillon, of Newark, who up to his arrival in this country played a leading part in the Land Leagne and Home Rule agitation. Mrs. Parnell, the mother of the Irish leader, was escorted to the hall by William W. Smith, the Prohibition candidate in the XVIII District, expended $123 71 for personal travelling expenses, $3 for pasters and $12 20 for travelling expenses, $3 for pasters and $5 to the Prohibition Committee of Rockland County. Guy C. Humphrey (Pro.), in the XXXIII District, expended $10 for paster ballots.

John Raines (Rep.), in the XXIXth District, contributed $300 cach to claimen of Ontario, Steuben and Yades (County committees for printing, postage and other expenses of committees for printing, station of committees of printing, station of committees of printing, station of committees and expended $50 for printing, $41 for postage, $5 for clerical services to J. L. Burnett, $41 for postage, $5 for clerical services to J. L. Burnett, $41 for postage, $5 for clerical services to J. L. Burnett, $41 for postage, $5 for clerical services to J. L. Burnett, $41 for postage, $5 for clerical services to J. L. Burnett, $41 for postage and $40 for travelling expenses.

Jahn Baines (Rep.), in the XXIXth District, paid $41 for clerical services for printing, $41 for postage and $40 for travelling expenses of committees, and expended $50 for printing, $41 for postage, $5 for clerical services to J. L. Burnett, $41 for postage and $40 for travelling expenses.

Jahn Baines (Rep.), in the XXIXth District, paid $41 for postage and $40 for travelling expenses.

John Baines (Rep.), in the XXIXth District, paid $41 for p

The delegates, Messrs. O'Brien, Sullivan, Harrington d Gill, reached Taylor's Hotel from the Hoffman onso at 7:30 o'clock, and were escorted from there The delegates, Messrs. O'Brien, Sullivan, Harrington to the rink by a large body of men, consisting of several divisions of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, and The meeting was held under the auspices of the Central Branch of the Irish National League, of which M. B. Holmes is the State delegate, and he also acted as chairman of the committee of arrangements. Mayor Peter McGavisk, of Hoboken, called the meetorder in a brief and eloquent speech, and introed Mayor Orestes Cleveland as the presiding officer of the evening. The Mayor on rising to speak was greeted with an outburst of applanse. He made some telling hits in his denunciation of the methods employed by Mr. Balfour in governing the Irish people, and then called upon Governor Abbett to make the address of welcome, which he did in a manner that stirred the

"We are not alone Irishmen here," he said, "bu we are Americans and Germans and other nationalias well: for in this free country we know neither race nor religion where a great question of Na liberty for a struggling nation is involved." (Applause.) He then introduced William O'Brien as the first speaker, to whom the audience gave the usual cordial welcome by cheering, applauding and waving hats and handkerchiefs. Mr. O'Brien said in part:

I won't waste words in attempting to thank you for the florious welcome, civil and military, that you have been bleased to give myself and my friends to-night in New-This is one of the most girrious, one of the most inspiriting sights that my eyes have ever fallen upon. The only reward you want is to be told, as I now tell you, that the success, the unexampled success, that has attended our mission to America has brought joy to the heart of every man who is fighting coercion upon the old soil of Ireland and struck terror and despair into the hearts of Mr. Baifour and of his assembly of spies and removables in Dublin (Castle, (Pralonged annians)).

and of his assembly of spies and removables in Dublin Castle. (Prolonged applause.)

We have come here at the call of our own matchless leader. Parnell (renewed applause), to, in the words of the old song, answer the question, "How is poor old Ireland, and how does she stand?" and, although the fight is still raging and our people are in the thick of a flerce and cruel conflict for the commonest rights and liberties which you as American citizens enjoy in this great land, still the story which we have to tell you is no longer a story of disinster and despair, but of steady progress and of inevitable victory. (Applause.) The progress of our cause has been so rapid. Friends, and powerful friends, are now throughing into our ranks in such numbers that we sometimes all but forget how incredible has been the advance that the Home Ruie cause has made in the ten years of the existence of the Irish Parliamentary party, under the unrivalled leadership of Charles Stewart Parnell. (Applause again and again renewed.)

Mrs. Knoble lying on the floor. Her face was blacked and scorched by the powder. The bullet had struck her in the left cheek in front of the ear, and the moral Hospital, where she was in a dying condition at a late hour.

Sergent Leary, of the Orange force, at once summoned Officers Deck and Cooper, and began a search for the attempted murderer. After a short time the was found in an old woodshed in the rear of the was found in an old woodshed in the rear of the unarted walley to the shed, and there placed the murale of his revolver to his right ear and blown his brains out. The revolver was still clutched in the dead man's hand.

SEEKING DIVORCE FROM HIS YOUNG WIFE

all, we have a just cause, a cause conserated by suffering all, we have a just cause, a cause conserated by suffering all, we have a just cause, a cause conserated by suffering all, we have a just cause, a cause conserated by suffering all, we have a just cause, a cause conserated by suffering all, we have a just cause, a cause conserated by suffering all, we have a just cause, a cause conserated by suffering the content of the cause of the ca all, we have a just cause, a cause consecrated by suffering and sacrifice, and the triumph of which is dearer to you all, we have a just cause, a cause consecrated by suffering and sacrifice, and the triumph of which is dearer to you and to me than any mere material gains, aye, even than life itself. (Immense cheering.) The clergyman and the layman, the laborer and the mechanic, the clitzen and the peasant, the rich and the poor, the brawn and the brain are to-day side by side in Ireland, working with might and main like brothers and like soldiers in a common battle. (Continued cheering.) How can any one doubt of early and ultimate success. (Appiause.)

Think of what our beloved country has endured in the past, and contrast that with the brilliant future which is in store for her on an early day if you in America will only stand by us in this the supreme moment of the great conflict. (Cries of "We're with you" and cheers.) Already there has awept across the ocean time and time again the great value of this Republic, unbroken by even one discordant note, showing that every man who rejoices in the proud title of American citizen is on the side of Parnell and Gladstone. (Applause.) That cheered Gladstone and Parnell, and that, also, cheered the Irish people. We want money now. The Tory treasury is rich in money and in oppressive devices of brute force to suppress the great National uprising in Irelaud. Let the men of Jersey City answer and say that if we fail to win the victory now it will not be because you witheld aid at the moment when aid alone was necessary to enable us to carry the day. (Prolonged cheering and applause.)

Mayor Clevojand then called for subscriptions, and everybody was so anxious to give something that the speech-making portion of the programme had to be

Mayor Cleveland then called for subscriptions, and everybody was so anxious to give something that the speech-making portion of the programme had to be suspended for more than an hour. Several thousand dollars were subscribed.

Then T. D. Sullivan, ex-Lord Mayor of Dublin, had his inning and won the hearts of his listeners by his earnestness and eloquence. Timothy Harrington, M. P., and T. P. Gill, M. P., also spoke.

William O'Brien and T. P. O'Connor will speak to-night in Worcester, Mass., and to-morrow night in Lowell.

John Dillon and T. D. Sullivan will speak in Newark to-morrow evening.

MRS. WATKINS REINSTATED.

Washington, Nov. 12 .- Post master-General Wana directing the reinstatement of Mrs. Margaret S. Wat-kins, the delivery clerk at the postoffice who was last Thursday temporarily suspended for telling Senator Quay's son that his father's mail went to the Dead Letter Office now.

SENATOR HISCOCK IN TOWN. United States Senator Frank Hiscock, of Syracuse, was at the Fifth Avenue Hotel yesterday afternoon. He is not at all discouraged at the Republican defeat.

Is a superb, double-track steel highway tetween New-York, Philadelphia, Baitimore and Washington, via Jersey Central, Reading and B. and G. Railrossis. All the trains are equipped with brand new vestibuled day coaches and buffet parlor cars, the finest ever constructed by the Pullman Company. The fastest trains between New-York and Washington run via this route. Station foot of Liberty-st.

How is your Child?

Swift's Specific is the great developer of delicate chil

SSS

SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.

POLITICAL ODDS AND ENDS. EXPENSES OF CONGRE'S CANDIDATES! REPORTS FILED WITH THE SECRETARY OF

STATE. ponses were filed with the Secretary of State to-day by Congress candidates: Albany, Nov. 12 .- These statements of election exongress candidates;
The candidacy of Thomas H. Beal in the XXVIsh Dis rict cost $16 for pasters, $6 50 for printing circular letters James W. Wadsworth (Rep.), in the XXXIst District, contributed $250 each to Wyoming, Genessee, Orleans and Livingston Republican County Committees to be expended in defraying legitimate campaign expenses. He also paid $5 for having his pasters printed.

The statement of Squire T. Hillis (Pro.), in the XIVth District, has one expenditure of $5 for incidentals.

ISRE C. Andrews (Pro.), in the XXVIIIth District, had relation appears.

william W. Smith, the Prohibition candidate in the

J. Knoud, of this city, at whose home she is staying, and her entrance was received with applause. The Hibernian Rides of Jersey City were there in force, with flags, banners and music, and wearing the handsome green barges of the order, their appearance being halfed with cheers.

The delegation of this city, at whose home she is staying, and strong shalled strong and strong shalled several strong shalled several strong shalled several several strong shalled with cheers.

The delegation of this city, at whose home she is staying, as spress charges and $40 for travelling expenses.

James J. Belden (Rep.), in the XXVth District, constraint of the order of the or John Lewis Childs (Rep.), in the 1st District, expended eral divisions of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, and an immense crowd that lined the streets through which they passed and cheered taemselves hourse for the popular champions of the Irish cause and for the great leaders, Parnell and Gladstone.

The meeting was held under the auspices of the Central The meeting was held under the auspices travelling expenses, $26. In conclusion he says: "In addition to the above I have contributed to various clubs, town and county committees $2,580, not in aid of my election alone, but toward legitimate campaign expenses in general," making his total election, expenditures $4,004.18.

84,004 18.

The expenditures of D. Page (Dem.), candidate in the XXIXth District, were: Printing, $86 50; posters, $11 25; Ontario County Committee, to cover printing, etc., $50, and for same purposes, $112 50 to Yates County Committee; stationery, etc., $90; postage, $193; M. E. Page, can vasses for city of Hornelisyille, stationery, etc., $61 41; there $2. Station County town and local committees. livery, $5; Sicuben County, town and local committees

Rivery, $5; Steuben County, town and local commissees, $228; personal travelling expenses, $150. Sereno E. Payne (Rep.), in the XXVIIth, paid $150 $600 and $300 respectively to the Oswego, Wayne and Cayuga Republican County Committees for use in defraying lawful election and campaign expenses only; stamped envelopes, $46 40; railroad fares, $7 65; livery, $5 75; passes ters, $18. Edwin K. Burnham (Dem.), candidate in the XXVIIth District: Wayne Democratic County Committee for legitimate expenses of campaign, $150; paid W. H. Hughes, $25; M. T. Coiller, $10; Harvey Shufelt, $5 for travelling $25; M. T. Coiller, $10; Harvey Shufelt, $5 for travelling expenses; pasters, $29; personal travelling expenses, $102; telegraph and telephone expenses, $13 20; W. E. Webster, for printing, postage and labor in distribution of circulars, $75; chairman of the Gawego Democratic County Committee, to pay expenses of public meeting, $25.

George Van Horn (Dem.), in the XXIVth District, poid $23 62 in railroad fares; hotel bills, $44 40; livery, $42 50; telephonics, and telephonics.

telephoning and telegraphing, $3; pasters, $40; 10,000 autograph letters, $42 50; express charges on same, $2 40; envelopes, $6 25; postage stamps, $82 50; clerical service and postage, $20; $200 and $241 were respectively paid to the chairmen of the Herkimer and Otsego county Democratic committees, to be used only in defraying the lawful expenses of such committees and for the general advantage of the Democratic party, and were paid at the request of such committees as a regular assessment.

Frank Beobe, a candidate for Assembly in the Fulton and Hamilton county district, spent 16 cents for tolls, $$\frac{1}{2}$$ to paper and postage, 20 cents car fare, $10 to the County Committee for printing, and pasters, $17.50.

KANSAS FARMERS TALK OF A NATIONAL TICKET. Topeks, Kan., Nov. 12 (Special).—There is no question but that a mutual understanding exists between Farmers' Alliance leaders throughout the country concerning the organization of a National party. Both of the Farmers' Alliance organs in this city published editorials to-day calling on the farmers to stand in line for 1892. It is claimed by the People's party leaders here that Colonel Livingstone, of the National Farmers' Alliance, will be elected to the United States Sonate in Georgia, and that steps have already been taker looking to a union of all the kranger societies. One of the best posted of the People's party politicians said to-day that senator Phumb had been discussed as a Presidential possibility, and would have been nominated had he not entered the canvass for the Republican ticket.

TO INVESTIGATE FRAUD IN ARKANSAS Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 12 (Special).—In the United States District Court to-day Judge Williams granted the application for a subpoena for the county clerk of Conway County, who is commanded to bring with him the poll-books and ballots used at Morritton on election day. This is the first order of the kind ever issued in the United States and the Judge, in granting it, held that there was no secret ballot in Arkansas.

You've tried Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription have you and you're disappointed. The results are not immedi-

And did you expect the disease of years to disappear in a week? Put a pinch of time in every dose. You would not call the milk poor because the cream doesn't rise in an hour? If there's no water in it the cream is sure to rise. If there's a possible cure, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is sure to effect it, if given a fair trial.

You get your one dollar it costs back again if it don't benefit or cure you.

We wish we could give you the makers' confidence. They show it by giving the money back again, in all cases not benefited, and it'd surprise you to know how few dollars are needed to keep up the refund.

Mild, gentle, soothing and healing is Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Cures the worst cases permanently. No experimenting. It's "Old Reliable." Twenty-five years of success. Of druggists.

the voter presents his ballot to the election judge that bellot is numbered to correspond with the number opposite the elector's name on the poll-books, so that the judges and clerks of election can tell how every man voted. It is claimed that frauds have been committed in several counties and it is supposed that the investigation of the Morrilton election will be followed by similar orders for each county clerk in the 1st and 1ld Congress Districts, where the returns do not correspond with the United States supervisors' reports.

REPUBLICAN HOPES IN ILLINOIS. THE FARMER LEGISLATORS NOT READY

UNITE WITH THE DEMOCRATS.

Chicago, Nov. 12 (Special).—There is now smail like-lihood that the Farmers' Mutual Benefit Association representatives in the General Assembly will vote for Palmer for United States Senator. They were elected as exponents of the third party idea and are not likely to drop into a political caucus now. These three gento drop into a political caucus now. These three gen-tlemen hold the balance of power, and from all ac-counts are fully aware of the facts. Much talk has been indulged in lately about Democratic plans to un-seat a sufficient number of Republicans in the Legis-lature to give them the majority. People who make this statement forget one little obstacle in the way. Nothing can be done in the lower house without the consent of the Farmers' Mutual Benefit Association men. As the matter stands now, they can obtain im-portant concessions from either party, but with the men. As the matter stands now, they can obtain important concessions from either party, but with the Demograts in a majority the prospect of any attention being paid to the agricultural interests is alim. The Farmers' Mutual Benefit Association legislators are aware of this fact and will hardly do anything to jeopardize their present chances of running things. Consternation has been created in the Democratic camp by the discovery that Kenny (Dem.) is not elected over Popkin (Rep.) in the IId District, after all, but that the Republicans still hold the majority there. Senator Farwell to-day revived the Republicans by saying that there was still a fighting chance for the party in the General Assembly and that he hoped to be re-elected Senator in January. Said he, in regard

"The Republicans are morally entitled to it, as on a joint ballot the Legislature will consist of 101 Republicans, 100 Democrats and three representatives of the Farmers' Mutual Benefit Association. I believe that the result will be favorable to the Republican region will doubtless be party, although ex-Governor Palmer will doubtless be only the Democratic candidate, I think his support will be rather reluctant and reserved, as there are many prominent Democrats better entitled to the nomination for the place. The last office to which ex-Governor Palmer was elected was given him by the votes of Republicans."

Palmer was elected was given him by the votes of Republicans.

"Will any other Republican beside yourself make a canvass for the place!"

"I don't know. I have not heard that any one has expressed an intention to make an attempt to secure that place." TAMMANY "SLATTERED" THE MONEY.

LOOK AT THE EXPENSES OF WIGWAM CANDI-DATES AND THEN AT MR. VARNUM'S. Among the candidates who filed certificates of their lection expenses yesterday was Mayor Grant. His statement is as follows:

Rent of rooms at Union Square Hotel used as head-quarters, $417 65; livery and petty charges, $7.75; James J. Pholan, expenses at headquarters, cierk hire, meats, postage, postal cards, stationery, messenger service, copying and incidental expenses, $415.05; printing and distributing, $4,159.30; distributing handbills, postage and rent of rooms, $1,095; advertising, $1,044.20; postage stamps, $100; total, $7,238.95.

James M. Fitzsimons, elected on the Tammany ticket as Judge of the City Court, spent $4,761.87. Of that amount the sum of $4,000 was paid to the Tammany General Committee.

General Committee. John E. Brodsky, who was elected to the Assembly on an independent ticket in the VIIIth District, spent $1,224 80, most of which was for printing.

John J. Gorman, elected Sheriff on the Tammany icket, spent $5.720. Of that amount the sum of $4,000 was paid to Tammany Hall General Committee. John R. Fellows, elected to Congress from the Vith District, gave the sum of $700 to the Tammany District Committee and spent $578.25 in other ways. Following is Mr. Varnum's statement:

lowing is Mr. Varnum's statement:

1. James M. Varnum, a candidate for the office of Judge of the Superior Court of the City of New-York, at the general election held on the fourth day of November, 1890, hereby certify in compliance with the provisions of Chapter 94 of the Laws of 1890 that I have not contributed or expended directly or indirectly either myself, or through any other person, any money or other valuable consideration of any kind or nature in aid of my election to such office.

JAMES M. VARNUM.

THE COUNT ON CONGRESSMEN.

Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 12 (Special).—Official returns from the Hd Congressional District give Breckinridge (Dem.) 875 majority for the short term, and 811 for the long term. In the 1st District Cate (Dem.) has 29 majority, with two counties still out. The official returns are incomplete from the HIId, IVth and Vth Elmira, N. Y., Nov. 12.-The official count on is as follows: For Rockwell (Dem.)—Chemung County, 071 plurality; Seneca County, 287 plurality; for Noyes (Rep.)—Schuyler County, 216 plurality; Tompkins Island Legislative District now claim that W. C. Collins (Rep.), of that city, who received a majority of the votes, is ineligible, not having been a resident of this State for the statutory time. If this claim should prove correct, it would reduce by one the number of Republicans on joint ballot, and give the Democrats a majority on a ballot for United States Sensitor. enator. Worcester, Mass., Nov. 12.—By the Aldermen's re-ount to-day, Walker (Rep.) makes a net gain of eight rer Pratt (Dem.) for Congress. Plurality now 808.

DIFFERENT SINCE THE ELECTION.

Birringham, Conn., Nov. 12 (Special).—On Monday, November 3, Arthur Hine, representative of an English syndicate of plush manufacturers, visited this place and examined the manufacturing facilities, prospecting for a location for a mill. He stated to the officers of the Board of Trade, who showed him around, that this combination of plush manufacturers wanted to come combination of pinsh manufacturers wanted to come to America and to manufacture goods immediately, in order to be able to control the American market, as the McKinley bill had practically shut them out. This was the day before election, and Hine was anxious to find a factory that his concern could occupy at once. The next day the Democrats were victorious in many States. Yesterday D. S. Brinsmade met Arthur Hine in New-York City to hear his decision about settling here. Mr. Hine seld: "Things are altogether different since the election." He did not think his syndicate would consider starting up over here any further, as the profits of a few years would not repay them for the investment.

TO ENTERTAIN THE GUESTS IN COLUMBUS. Columbus, Nov. 12 (Special).-Ex-President Cleveland will arrive in Columbus to-morrow morning and will be entertained by Governor Campbell, whose condition is much improved and who may be permitted by physicians to attend the Thurman banquet tomorrow night. Don M. Dickinson will also be enter-tained by the Governor. Congressman Breckinridge will be entertained by Allen W. Thurman; Mr. Watterson and Congressman Wilson by private citizens, and the other distinguished guests at a hotel. A public the other distinguished guests at a note. A public reception will be tendered to Mr. Cleveland at the Governor's office in the State House from 11 s. m. to 1 p. m. to-morrow, and another reception will be tendered to him at the Governor's mansion from 3 p. m. to 5 p. m. on Friday. The arrangements for the banquet to-morrow night are all completed and the 1,000 tickets are all sold.

NEWARK NOT REQUIRED TO CHANGE WARDS.
Trenton, N. J., Nov. 12 (Special).—Chief Justice
Beasiey has filed an opinion in the case of James A.
Dempsey against the Mayor and Common Council of Newark, and has declared the alteration of the wards of a city by special legislation unconstitutional. The suit was brought to test the act of 1889 relating to the co-ordination under certain circumstances of the boundaries of the wards of the cities and those of Assembly districts. NEWARK NOT REQUIRED TO CHANGE WARDS

MILLER NOT TO CONTEST ELLIOTT'S SEAT. Charleston, S. C., Nov. 12.—Miller's lawyer at Beau-fort to-day said that Miller would not contest Elliott's seat for the VIIth District in the LIId Congress, but would sue the printers who printed Miller's tickets in a manner not in compliance with the law.

REPUBLICAN PLURALITY IN NEW-HAMPSHIRE. Boston, Nov. 12 (Special).—A special canvass of New-Hampshire gives Tuttle (Rep.), 42,472; Amsden (Dem.), 42,372; Prohibition candidate, 1,305; Republican plurality, 100. The Senate will stand, fourteen Republicans and ten Democrats.

THEY WANT TO FEED ON THE CITY. Hordes of Tammany men are already circulating among the leaders of the Wigwam, trying to get "backamong the leaders of the Wigwam, trying to get "backing" for their applications for places in the District-Attorney's office. Frederick O. Swain, Peter Mitchell's nephew, who recently resigned from the Sheriff's office, wants a clerkship, and other candidates for various places are Wauhope Lynh, Tammany leader of the Vth Assembly District, now of the Corporation Counsel's office; William M. Hoes, James D. McChel-

Sth-ave., Broadway and 27th-op. Battrety how in its

A Woman's Duty to Society is to preserve her beauty, which is only done by keeping her bined pure. Women as well as men inherit the send-unoy of their ancestors to scrafulous and specific discesses, to which the world is indebted for a very large proportion of "the ills that flesh is helf to."

NO WOMAN CAN HE BEAUTIFUL if disfigured by moth, pimples, extens, discolored or una healthy skin, sallow complexion and the like. Under such conditions

HER BLOOD IS IMPURE. Blood is the Life.

And no life is healthy if the blood is impure. The kind of diseases people have, whether of the stomach, lungs, liver, kidneys, bowels, nerves, glands or skin, depends apon the predisposition of the person; but all are promoted or caused by impure or impoverished blood, for which the Cactus Blood Cure is the only infallible remedy yet disease.

The Cactus Blood Cure has positively cured numerous cases of Screfda and sait theem is one month's time where all other blood purifiers have failed.

Pleasant to take, applicable to diseases of infancy or old age. Sold by druggists, or sent prepaid on receipt of Price to any part of the United States. Price, large size, Wa. 101 small, $1.00.

ALVA'S BRAZILIAN SPECIFIC CO.,

Office, No. 6 Wall-st., New-York.

THE OLD RELIABLE INDEMAN & SONO PIANOS. (ESTABLISHED 1837.)

23 EAST 14TH ST., NEW YORK

land, Francis V. S. Oliver, his brother James, and his cousin, J. Oliver Kane, John B. McGoldrick, secretary of the Tammany Hall General Committee; John F. of the Tammany Hall General Committee; John F. McIntyre, an ex-member of the County Democracy? ex-Sepator T. C. E. Ecclesine, Thomas F. Gilroy, Ir., now of the Corporation Counsel's office; James A. O'Gorman, John F. Brennan, B. J. Douras, Hugh Donnelly and Joseph F. Moss.

Assistant District-Attorneys Semple, Davis and Redford are said to be the strongest candidates for reappointment, and Messrs. Lindsay and McDona will probably be made full-fledged assistants.

THE OFFICIAL VOTE OF WESTCHESTER. The official vote of Westchester County is as follows: Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals—Earl (Dem. ad Rep.), 2,083; Mason (Pro.), 724; Gerau (Soc. Labor), Congress, XIVth District-Steams (Rep.), 8,941; Congress, XIVth District—Steams (1907), 5,238; Willis Stahlnecker (Dem.), 10,446; Taylor (Ind.), 2,208; Willis (Pro.), 671; Frederick Bennetts (Soc. Labor), 235.

County Treasurer—Cromwell (Rep.), 10,109; Hoag (Dem.), 10,767; Cady (Pro.), 672.

In the 1st Assembly District McCleiland (Dem.) had 351 plurality, in the 11d Ryan (Dem.) had 1,180 plurality, and in the 111d Husted (Rep.) had 587 plurality.

A NOVEL MATINEE OF "PRINCE KARL,"

ALBAUGH'S, IN WASHINGTON, FILLED WITE WELL-KNOWN PEOPLE, THE GUESTS OF RICHARD MANSFIELD AND A FRIEND.

Washington, Nov. 12 (special).—The invitation mati-nee given by Richard Mansfield, at Albaugh's Opera-House this afternoon, was the most brilliant social and theatrical affair in this city in many years. It was given mainly in compliment to Mrs. Frank B. Loring, a warm personal friend of Mr. Mansfield. Mrs. Loring sent out numerous "R. S. V. P." invitations to her friends and the friends of Mr. Mansfield. Dr. and Mrs. Loring occupied a stage box, and when they took their seats they were greeted with applause by their guests. In another box sat Mrs. Harrison and Mrs. Dimmick, while in the audience were Sir Julian and Lady Panneefote, the Japanese Legation, the Hon. Henry Edwardes and George Barclay, of the British Legation; Baron Fava, the Italian Minister; the Chinese and Corean Legation, Senor and Senora De Hurtado, of the Colombian Legation; Mr. de Routkflosky, of the Russian Legation; the French Legation, Comte B. Cham-brun: Minister de Weckherlin, of the Netherlands; Sepor nora Aezonan, of the Nicaraguan Legation; the Hon. and Mrs. Michael Herbert, of the British tion; Assistant Secretary Soley, of the British Lega-tion; Assistant Secretary Soley, of the Navy Dipart-ment; Senator and Mrs. McPherson, Admiral Rogers, Admiral and Mrs. Harmony, Judge John Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Ever-ett and Miss Everett, Justice and Miss Strong, Congressmen in the XXVIIIth Congressional District County, 645 plurality. Rockwell's plurality in the district, 97.

Chicago, Nov. 12.—The Democrats in the Rock Island Legislative District now claim that W. C. Collins (Rep.), of that city, who received a majority of the votes, is ineligible, not having been a resident of this State for the stations time. If this claim Roosevelt, General and Misses Halstead.

The play presented was "Prince Karl," and it was given in a manner which charmed the large and fashionable assembly. The entire company was recalled at the close of the second act, and Mr. Mansfeld was complimented with a special call at the end of the performance.

CHARGES BY CHATTANOOGA MERCHANTS. Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 12.—A Chattanooga special "The American" says: Before the Interstate Com-Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 12.—A Chattanooga special to "The American" says: Before the Interstate Commerce Commission to-day among other cases in complaint of the Chattanooga Board of Trade, counsel read the petition which charged the East Tennessee, Western and Atlantic, Nashville and Châttanooga and connecting lines with taking merchandise from New-York and Boston through and beyond Chattanooga for less rates. Memphis and Nashville were cited as evidence and schedules of rates were presented for comparison. The rates were declared to be arbitrary and an unjust discrimination against the city of Chattanooga. The East Tennessee and Norfolk and Western responded, admitting their rates and denying that the circumstances are the same as those relating to the Chattanooga, Memphis and Nashville. They denied that less rates on a long haul are a violation of the Interstate law, and denied that the rates are a discrimination against Chattanooga Judge Clark for the Nashville and Chattanooga denied that the road brought any freight for Chattanooga from the East, and declared that it only accepted through freight from Chattanooga to Nashville. The railroad men asked that all evidence relating to shipments from any other point than seaboard cities be excluded, but the request was denied and many witnesses were examined.

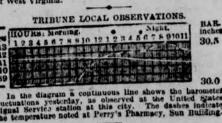

THE WEATHER REPORT.

FORECAST TILL 8 P. M. THURSDAY.

Washington, Nov. 12.—For New-England and Eastern
New-York, fair, preceded by light rain in extreme Southeastern Massachusetts; slightly warmer; variable winds.
For Eastern Pennsylvania, New-Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and Virghula, light rain, followed by fair; slightly warmer.

warmer.

For Western New-York, Western Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Ohio, fair, preceded by rain in the mountains

Tribune Office, Nov. 13, 1 a. m.—Cloudiness prevailed most of the time yesterday, with rather high humidity and a little rain. The temperature ranged between 38 and 48 degrees, the average (40%) being 13% lower than on the corresponding day last year, and the same as on Tuesday. In and near this city to-day there will probably be warmer, generally fair weaking.

are used in its preparation. It has more than three times the arrangth of Cocon mixed with Starch, Arrowroot or Sugar, and is therefore far more economical costing less than one cent o evp. It is descious, nourthing, strengthening, Eastly, DIGERTER, and admirably adapted for invalids as well as persons in health.

W. BAKER & CO., Dorohester, Mass.